Thought: "It is the supreme art of the teacher to awaken joy in creative expression and knowledge." Albert Einstein

From the Principal

This week the College has focused on wellbeing, with a range of activities for staff and students, to remind us of the need to look after our physical and mental health. Last week I had the privilege of listening to Rosie Batty, who has demonstrated that in the face of personal tragedy, championing the cause of awareness of the impact of domestic violence on families has given her strength. One of her key messages was the importance of respectful relationships and the impact this has on wellbeing. Accepting diversity in people and understanding we have more similarities than differences goes a long way to helping the wellbeing of each individual and links very much to the Christian message that Jesus taught, "Love one another as I have loved you" which was a focus in chapel this week.

Welcome back for our final term, it will be a busy one, as we celebrate with our Year 12 students of the class of 2016 and look towards events such as the Visual Arts and Design exhibition, the numerous concerts showcasing student talent and a range of parent activities.

Wednesday 5 October was World Teachers day. It is a day to consider those teachers who have made a difference in the lives of young people. Many parents will remember a teacher who has inspired and encouraged, who has cared enough to go the extra mile and who challenged us to greater heights. When we have functions for our Alumni students, they spend much time reminiscing and asking after the teachers who taught them. Our current students will also have their favourite teacher or teachers who help them grow and develop. Thank you to all teachers who take on their role as a vocation not just a job. Teachers make a world of difference.

From the Deputy Principal

Cybersafety: In addition to the College's Life Skills program that includes teaching children about cybersafety, we encourage parents to take an active role in ensuring that their children are safe online. The Australian Government Office of the Children's eSafety Commissioner has recently launched the 'iParent' website at <https://www.esafety.gov.au/iparent>. The site includes lots of advice and resources for families about managing devices in the home, keeping children safe, online gaming, social networking and seeking help with cyberbullying.

Road Safety: A small number of parents continue to place their children at risk by not crossing the ring road at the pedestrian crossing during the busy drop-off and pick-up times. In addition, parents must not park opposite Reception and walk children across the road during peak times; there are too many cars and buses moving through there. A recent near miss highlighted this risk.

Parents and Friends Association News

Term 4 already! We have a very busy term ahead. From school plays to the open evening and the Fairview dance party we have lots going on. We will be calling on volunteers for many of these events. If you are able to help out in anyway, please let us know. Emails and Facebook posts will go out closer to the dates, so when you see them please put your hand up. Every little bit of help counts!

Monday 28 November at 7.30pm is our Annual General Meeting. We are calling on new members for both the executive and the committee. If you are interested, please come along. The work we do with fund raising is really improving the students' experience at school. The new Dunhelen basketball court is the latest purchase we have made. The students love it! Please help us continue the work we are doing.

As always we are more than happy for your feedback, please do not hesitate to contact us via email p&f@aitkencollege.edu.au or on our Facebook page.

Brookhill School Notices

Although this is the start of a new term, Year 12 students are rapidly approaching the end of their time at Aitken. The group that will soon depart have been a pleasure to work with and will be missed. However, time marches on and it will be the legacy of leadership and scholarship that the group leaves behind which will live on in the Aitken College culture. I have written to parents of Year 12 students separately, advising of arrangements for the annual Year 12 Celebration Day on Tuesday 18 October and invited them to the final assembly and parade.

Expectations: At the first assembly this term, I reminded all Brookhill students of some of the core expectations for student members of our community. I also mentioned a couple of specific things that need to be well understood. To facilitate discussion at home between parents and children, I will briefly list some of the points I spoke to the students about. Senior students are leaders within the College Community. This means they must strive for high standards of behaviour, dress and grooming, punctuality and respect for each other and the community.

All students must show respect for staff. This means:

- Classes must be allowed to run in an orderly fashion; students must not behave in a way that disrupts classes
- They must not argue with teachers
- They must follow all teacher instructions promptly
- They must accept the consequences of being disrespectful to staff.

All students must be properly attired in school uniform:

- PE Uniform is not an acceptable substitute for correct uniform
- Senior Students must take responsibility for having sufficient uniform items (they are old enough to use the washing machine). Notes saying that uniform items are dirty will not be accepted
- Uniform must be worn properly
- Hair that is below shoulder length must be tied back.

Piercings: Students are permitted to have one stud or sleeper in each ear lobe. No other piercings are permitted. Students with other visible piercings may be removed from class and sent home and will not be allowed to return to school with the piercing visible.

*Mr David Murphy
Head of Brookhill*

VCAL News

All students undertaking the VCAL program at Aitken College participate in Structured Workplace Learning (SWL) at the end of Term 2 and Term 3. The aim of SWL is for students to get a practical experience of their chosen career field. This is also viewed as a way for students to experience 'job hunting' and develop appropriate skills.

VCAL Co-ordinator*

Dunhelen School Notices

Welcome back to another term. Term 4 will be a busy term for all. There is much to do and I hope that students have returned with a renewed energy and are ready to go.

All students should be in summer uniform this term. Please ensure that your child is in full summer uniform and it is fitting correctly. A reminder that parkas are not to be worn over summer uniform. Students wearing parkas over summer uniform will have them confiscated.

Please note that students should not be using their mobile phone during school hours. Every student has been provided with a locker and lock and phones should be stored in their locker every morning. Students found using phones during school hours will have them confiscated for the day. Please do not call or text your child during school hours. In an emergency, please call reception and they will pass the message on immediately.

Homework club will be running again this term. Students can attend every Tuesday and Thursday lunchtimes to catch up with work. In addition to a staff member, Youth Leaders from Lifehouse church are in attendance to assist students.

This term we invite applicants for 2017 leadership positions. If you feel your child displays leadership skills, please encourage them to nominate themselves. Once all nominations are in, applicants will sit an interview with either myself and/or the Assistant Heads of Dunhelen.

While this might seem a little early, the time will be here before we know it, so I would like to remind parents and students that Wednesday 7 December is Presentation night. This is a compulsory event for Dunhelen students so please make a note in your diary now, if you haven't already done so.

A welcome back from leave to Mr Michael Patchell, I am sure he is feeling ready to start again. As you may be aware, Mr Ben Prentice is on leave this term. Year 7 parents should feel free to contact Mrs Caron Flynn – Acting Assistant Head of School (Year 7).

*Mrs Francis Scuderi
Head of Dunhelen*

Fairview School Notices

Welcome back to Term 4! It is a very busy time of the year, so please keep up to date with all events and due dates. We begin Term 4 in the Summer school uniform. Please ensure that the uniform is worn correctly and parents can always refer to the Preparatory School Communication Book for further information.

This week we have focused on wellbeing and I spoke at assembly about the many ways we can look after ourselves and each other. The three key points for the students relate to eating well, getting sufficient exercise and making sure they get enough sleep. Students in the Preparatory School should be aiming for at least 10 hours per night.

On Wednesday, the Physical Education Department and some of our secondary students ran some physical activities for the Fairview students which helped keep them active. As part of the activities, many family members joined the students on the front lawn for a teddy bears picnic and on Thursday, grandparents and other family members were welcomed into the classroom to help with activities.

Although the term has only just begun, with the advent of Daylight Savings, we have noticed an increase in students running late for school. Homeroom commences at 8.45am and students should be waiting at their classroom at this time. If students are running late, they must go to Reception and collect a late pass. Please do not drop students off prior to 8.00am.

International School Library Celebration: Next Wednesday 12 October, the Preparatory School will celebrate International School Library Month. A note went home earlier this week outlining the plans for a Book Character Parade from 9.15am in the Chapel and Performing Arts Centre. Parents are welcome to attend and we welcome younger siblings and parents who would also like to dress up. If your child does not wear a Book Character costume, they must wear their school uniform. This is not a casual dress day.

Chaplain's Corner

How Quickly Time Flies: Here we are, Term 4 again! In less than two weeks we will be saying farewell to our Year 12 students, which seems to herald the run down to Christmas. Zoom Zoom!!

The hint of summer is starting to show her colours and the warm air is on its way. It certainly changes my mood out there on yard duty when I am not being hit by the chilly winds, but instead can soak up the warmth of the sun. Just like the speed of each year and the changing seasons, our lives can so quickly go from misery to joy, luring us into warmth. However, there will be hot days ahead where we will wish for the cool of winter, and those bitter cold days where we long for the heat. Why can't we just have spring all year round, or days between 22 and 27 degrees every day? Why, because life is not like that; we will all have our seasons to journey through. For me, knowing that God is with me on the journey, enables me to never journey alone, but also, the life of Jesus reminds me that on the other side of the tough times in life, there is new life!

I talked to the secondary students in chapel this week about a cup half full versus a cup half empty; do we enjoy the half we have, or grieve over the half we do not have. I think the enjoyment of what we have comes out of knowing that God loves, accepts and forgives us, which then enables us to offer ourselves self-love. It is my perception that we enjoy the half that we have, when we can enjoy the reflection of God in our own lives.

May you enjoy your cup, no matter how full or empty it is.

Humanities News

Welcome to the final term for 2016! The Humanities Faculty wishes all our Year 12 VCE students (in Business Management, Sociology, Legal Studies, Accounting and History) the best of luck in preparing for their upcoming exams. We are sure that they will be rewarded for the great efforts they have put in over the past two years.

We are holding the second annual 'Aitken Map Competition' this month. Students complete a hand-drawn map of A4 size or bigger, conforming to the "BOLTSS" geographic conventions (border, orientation, legend, title, scale and source) and submit it to their teacher or myself by Wednesday 2 November to win prizes: $40 iTunes for first place and $20 each for 2nd - 5th place. It is a great way to develop students' mapping skills in a fun way!

Performing Arts News

Wellbeing Week Performances: Students from Years 10, 11 and 12 Music classes entertained staff and students at lunchtime concerts this week. It was a fantastic opportunity for the students to experience the pressure of public performance. Thanks to Mrs Christine Hutchinson, Miss Stephanie Pace and Head of Music, Mr Nicholas Frampton for their work in preparing students and setting up each day.

College Play: Students are undertaking the final rehearsals for this year's College Play. Based on the children's book of the same name, The Book Of Everything revolves around a young boy Thomas who escapes into a fantasy world to avoid a difficult relationship with his well-meaning but sometime mean father. It is a humorous tale which sets out to prove the strength in families banding together to create happiness in their lives. Although there are some mature themes, the play has been enjoyed by people of all ages.

There are three performances, Thursday 13 October, Friday 14 October and Saturday 15 October all commencing at 7.30pm. Tickets are $16.50 adults or $11 for children/concessions (plus booking fees). There is also a Family of Four ticket price of $48.80 offering four tickets of any type. Tickets are available now by going to <https://www.trybooking.com/LGBE>.

Twilight Concert: One of the biggest concerts for the year is the Twilight Concert which runs in conjunction with College Open Evening on Tuesday 25 October. It involves students from all year levels in a three-hour outdoor show which takes place on the lawn area outside reception. The P&F Association will be selling BBQ food, our usual coffee van and ice-cream vendor will also be on site for you to purchase, or bring a blanket and packed picnic of your own and enjoy the varied and free program of music.

Director's Choice Gala Concert: Each year, we are excited to present some of the best work seen in the College across the year in the annual showcase of Aitken talent. More than one hundred students from Year 3 to 12 have been specially invited to re-stage some of the items I have chosen as the best this year. If you haven't attended many of the concerts throughout the year, this is a great way to see the talent we have. We will also present a sneak peek of next year's College Musical.

The performance will commence at 7.30pm on Thursday 27 October in the Chapel and Performing Arts Centre. Tickets go on sale this Monday and are a flat $10 each including booking fee. Alternatively, get a group together and get four tickets for the price of three, just $30. Go to <https://www.trybooking.com/MICE> to get your tickets to this wonderful show.
