

Child Safety Code of Conduct Policy Statement

The Child Safety Code of Conduct applies to:

- All staff members, including non-teaching staff and temporary or casual staff;
- Volunteers;
- Students;
- Parents and carers;
- Third Party Contractors and service providers (including External Education Providers);
- Members of the Aitken College Board;
- Teaching students on placement at the College; and
- Visitors

This Child Safety Code of Conduct outlines appropriate standards of behaviour for all adults towards students. The Code serves to protect students, reduce any opportunities for abuse or harm to occur, and promote child safety in the College environment. It provides guidance on how to best support students and how to avoid or better manage difficult situations. Where a staff member breaches the Code, Aitken College may take disciplinary action, including in the case of serious breaches, summary dismissal. The College revises the Code annually.

Teaching staff are also expected and required to abide by the VIT Code of Conduct.

The College's Board has endorsed this Child Safe Code of Conduct.

DO:

- Behave as a positive role model to students
- Treat all students with respect.
- Maintain professional boundaries
- Use positive and affirming language towards students.
- Encourage students to 'have a say' and then listen to them with respect.
- Be vigilant and proactive with regard to student safety and child protection issues.
- Provide age appropriate supervision for students.
- Respect cultural, religious and political differences.
- Intervene when students are engaging in inappropriate bullying behaviour towards others or acting in a humiliating or vilifying way.
- Help provide an open, safe and supportive environment for all students to interact, and socialise.
- Comply with guidelines published by the College with respect to child protection.
- Promote the safety, welfare and wellbeing of students.
- Promote the cultural safety, participation and empowerment of linguistically and culturally diverse students.
- Promote the safety, participation and empowerment of students with a disability.
- Report any breaches of this Child Safety Code of Conduct.
- Where an allegation of child abuse is made, ensure as quickly as possible that the student involved is safe.
- Report concerns about child safety to one of the College's Child Safety Officers and ensure that your legal obligations to report allegations externally are met.
- Call the Police on 000 if you have immediate concerns for a student's safety.
- Respect the privacy of students and their families and only disclose information to people who have a need to know.

DO NOT:

- Remain alone with a student for more than a short time.
- Engage in any form of inappropriate behaviour towards students or expose students to such behaviour.
- Breach professional boundaries.

- Engage in open discussions of an adult nature in the presence of students.
- Engage in undisclosed private meetings with a student that is not your own child.
- Engage in any form of sexual conduct with a student including making sexually suggestive comments and sharing sexually suggestive material.
- Engage in meetings with a child that is not your own, outside of school hours and without permission from the College and the child's parent.
- Engage in inappropriate personal communications with a student through any medium, including any online contact or interactions with a student.
- Engage in inappropriate or unnecessary physical conduct or behaviours including doing things of a personal nature that a student can do for themselves, such as toileting or changing clothes.
- Develop 'special' relationships with students that could be seen as favouritism (for example, the offering of gifts or special treatment for specific students).
- Use prejudice, oppressive behaviour or inappropriate language with students.
- Express personal views on cultures, race or sexuality in the presence of students or discriminate against any student based on culture, race, ethnicity or disability.
- Engage in any form of physical violence towards a student including inappropriately rough physical play.
- Use physical means or corporal punishment to discipline or control a student.
- Engage in any form of behaviour that has the potential to cause a student serious emotional or psychological harm.
- Take or publish (including online) photos, movies or recordings of a student without a valid educational context.
- Work with students while under the influence of illegal drugs or alcohol.
- Post online any information about a student that may identify them such as their: full name; age; email address; telephone number; residence; school; or details of a club or group they may attend.
- Ignore or disregard any suspected or disclosed child abuse.

Report any concerns

The Program also includes information for members of the Aitken College Board, staff and Direct Contact Volunteers as to how to identify key risk indicators of child abuse and how to report child abuse concerns to one of our College's nominated Child Safety Officers.

It also contains detailed procedures with respect to the reporting of child abuse incidents to relevant authorities.

Third Party Contractors, External Education Providers, Indirect Contact Volunteers, students, parents or other community members who have concerns that a child may be subject to abuse are asked to contact one of the College's Child Safety Officers.

The College Child Safety Officers are the Deputy Principal and Heads of Schools. The Principal may also be contacted.

Communications will be treated confidentially on a 'need to know basis'.

Whenever there are concerns that a child is in immediate danger, the Police should be contacted on 000.
