

College Code of Conduct

Aitken College promotes values that are in keeping with the Christian foundation and ethos of the College and its Vision, Mission and Aims.

At Aitken College staff, students, parents, carers and visitors have a right to be treated with courtesy and dignity and to participate in a College community that is safe, secure, supportive and free from bullying, harassment, discrimination and violence.

As staff members, we model behaviours which recognise the equality of colleagues, students and parents with whom we interact. Our language and actions should be encouraging and sensitive, manifesting in outcomes that will not demean or lessen the value of those with whom we work. As teachers on staff, we recognise the power we have in the classroom and will not use this to intimidate or diminish the life experience of those we teach, despite the difficulties which we can expect in any relationships. We are also strictly bound by the VIT Code of Conduct (available on www.vit.vic.edu.au).

As students, we acknowledge the role our teachers play in our education and will respect the guidance and boundaries they set for us. Our language and actions should be respectful of all whom we encounter at Aitken College, including our peers who may express different views and beliefs.

As parents, we acknowledge the important role which Aitken College plays in the lives of our families. We accept that as part of the positive role-modelling to our children we must deal respectfully with all teachers and staff and other parents and their families. We should act and speak in a manner which does not demean others, but rather holds the College in the highest regard, and seeks to support its ethos and vision.

Implementation

All Aitken College board members and managers are responsible for promoting compliance with this Code of Conduct and monitoring its applicability and effectiveness. The Principal will report to the Finance and Risk Committee so they can review the effectiveness of the Code of Conduct on an annual basis.

This Code of Conduct is available on the Aitken College's intranet site. It is also available to the College community through the College's public website. All employees are required to read and understand this Code of Conduct as part of their induction process.

Ethical awareness will be maintained by regular training sessions, and where necessary, workshops in which relevant issues will be discussed.

Consequences for breaking the Code of Conduct may include one or more of the following:

- The College may ask that a person leaves the premises or may ban a person from being on school premises.
- A parent may be directed to only communicate with College staff through a designated senior staff member
- Serious or prolonged inappropriate conduct may result in the termination of an enrolment
- Serious behaviour or criminal offence may involve the Police.

From June 2022, Principals will also be able to issue School Community Safety Orders prohibiting people from:

- Entering or remaining on school premises
- Engaging in inappropriate conduct
- Engaging in threatening or abuse communication with staff members, including through social media and other channels.

This not only applies to school premises, but also extends to any place where school activity is taking place (e.g. on school camp, at swimming carnival) and any area within 25 metres of that place.
